

Conference Literature Committee

Mission Statement:

The Conference Literature Committee (CLC) fosters quality literature in support of S.L.A.A. recovery; guides the planning, writing, and editing of literature from writers, writing groups, or service bodies within S.L.A.A.; and approves draft literature prior to submission for full Conference approval.

The CLC meets on the fourth Saturday of each month, from 9 to 10:30 AM Pacific Time. Meeting ID: 874 1967 1188 Passcode: 311933

Anyone interested in reading, discussing, or editing draft literature is welcome to join the Conference Literature Committee. Contact the CLC through our Committee page on the FWS website.

The following writing projects need people to work on them. Even if you don't wish to formally join the CLC, you can join a writing group. Please contact the CLC via the link above to be put in touch with a writing group.

Recent new literature proposals:

*Anorexia: Working the Program, Not the Problem: (combining all the booklets into one Book)

*Questions for Self-Diagnosis of Fantasy Addiction: (proposed by the Fantasy Addiction intergroup)

*Work Study for the Characteristics of Fantasy Addiction: (proposed by the Fantasy Addiction intergroup; intended help sex and love addicts explore how their fantasies contribute to their SLA addiction)

*Work Study for Signs of Recovery from Fantasy Addiction: (proposed by the Fantasy Addiction intergroup)

*You and the Sex and Love Addict in Your Life (for family members, partners, and friends of sex and love addicts in S.L.A.A.)

*The Illusion of Connection: The Dangers of AI Companions in S.L.A.A. Recovery (discussing whether virtual companions are a healthy way to fulfill emotional needs)

*S.L.A.A. Hopes and Promises ("Daytona" Promises modified) Other literature currently under development:

Member Retention Disclosure

Emotional Sobriety Virtual Meetings in S.L.A.A.

The CLC recently created a subcommittee to review S.L.A.A. published material with an eye for older items that might be revised and topics that might be lacking in our existing inventory. If you have thoughts about any of this, please reach out through the CLC page.

The Style Committee (SC)

The Style Committee (SC) is a subcommittee of the Conference Literature Committee (CLC). The SC ensures consistent language and style throughout our publications. We review draft manuscripts, provide feedback to writers, and recommend standard S.L.A.A. style guidelines. SC members shape written work into publishable S.L.A.A. literature.

These are the qualifications listed in the Style Committee Description:

- * Thorough understanding of the S.L.A.A. program of recovery (Twelve Steps, Traditions, and Concepts).
- * Strong oral and written communication skills.
- * Willingness to purchase and become familiar with Garner's Modern English Usage.
- * Ability to work well in a team, value the contribution of others, and collaborate for best results.
- * Professional experience in editing, writing, or publishing is a plus.
If you are interested, please reach out via the contact form on the CLC page of the F.W.S. website.

In service,
Peggy S., CLC Chair
